"Did we talk politics?" he replied to the first question, "We did," and he emphasized the affirmation.

"We talked of the legislation of the present session of congress," he continued, "from the attitude of those members of the republican party whom the newspapers are pleased to call insurgents."

Senator Elmer Burkett of Nebraska, another out-and-out insurgent, is com-ing to Sagamore Hill after Colonel Roosevelt returns from Boston. He, too, will talk politics. Representative Madison of Kansas, FOUGHT THREE CORNERED DUEL Marry Girl They Fought For.

New York. June 27.—The senior class of the College of the City of New York presented to Mayor Gaynor today an "ephebic" oath, swearing, as did the Athenian youths, never by act of theirs to bring disgrace upon the city's name. The mayor, who has urged students to interest themselves in public affairs, was greatly pleased. The oath is engrossed on parchment. Lancaster, Mass., June 27.—Because she was sent to her room for disobeying a rule of the institution, Eva Smith, aged sixteen, an inmate of the state industrial school for girls, committed suicide today by hanging. The girl's conduct at the school had been generally good.

Suddenly the smile left his face for the first time, and he said, Washington, June 27.—Senator randegee made a strong fight in the brandegee made a strong ignt in the senate yesterday to get the forestry bill through, but he went up against a very healthy filibustering crowd, led by Senators Burton, Bailey and New-lands, and of course they could talk for a month, if they set out to. It was useless to keep up the farce, as there is no way to compel a vote in the senate, and a man can talk just as long as he holds out. Hence, Sen-An nour later the coloner received the interviewers, who told him just what Senator LaFollette said about him and their meeting. The colonel smiled as though he liked it.

"I think there is nothing I can add to what the senator has said," he ator Brandegee reluctantly yielded to the wishes of his colleagues, and let the bill go over until next session. The house in the meantime late
